

POSSIBLE CLAIM TO UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AT BIRTH FOR INDIVIDUALS BORN OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES

If you were born outside the United States to one or both U.S. citizen parent(s), you might have a derivative claim to U.S. citizenship. Please consult the attached "Table of Transmission Requirements". A derivative claim to U.S. citizenship depends on the existence of a legal and blood relationship between yourself and your U.S. citizen parent(s). Therefore, if you are an adopted child of your U.S. citizen parent, you do not acquire citizenship automatically upon adoption. However, you may be eligible for citizenship through naturalization, pursuant to the provisions of the Child Citizenship Act 2000 (www.dhs.gov or http://www.travel.state.gov/family/adoption/info/info_457.html).

If you are under age 18, refer to the Embassy's Consular Report of Birth Abroad instructions (www.usembassy.org.uk).

If you are age 18 or above and have never been documented as a U.S. citizen by your parent(s), you may proceed to complete the following:

- 1) Application for Passport/Registration (Form DS-11)
- 2) Information for Determining Possible Loss of U.S. Citizenship (DS-4079)

It will be necessary to submit the following with your application:

1) Your Birth Certificate.

Certified copy of your long-form birth record issued by the appropriate governmental authority, showing your full name, date and place of birth, parents' information, filing and issue date.

2) Evidence of U.S. Citizenship of the Parent(s).

- a) U.S. Passport
 - b) U.S. Naturalization Certificate
- If not previously issued one of the above:
- c) U.S. Birth certificate
 - d) Certificate of Citizenship
 - e) Consular Report of Birth Abroad

Further evidence may be required to establish that your parent was a U.S. citizen at the time of your birth if his/her claim has not been previously established.

3) Evidence of Parents' Marriage.

Certified copy of your parents' marriage certificate issued by the appropriate governmental authority. Religious records are not acceptable.

4) Evidence of Termination of your Parent's Previous Marriages.

Certified copy of divorce decree/death certificate etc.

5) Evidence of Physical Presence in the United States of U.S. Citizen Parent(s).

Documentary evidence of periods of physical presence in the United States of your U.S. citizen parent(s) prior to your birth, including periods of physical presence outside the United States when the parent served in the U.S. armed forces or employed by other U.S. government agencies (if applicable). Please consult the "Table of Transmission Requirements" for physical presence requirements applicable at the time of your birth.

6) Your Identifying Documents.

Current foreign passport. It may also be necessary for your mother/father/brother or sister to accompany you to the Embassy to identify you. If your parents' or siblings are deceased, you should submit a progression of identifying documents of yourself from childhood to the present (e.g. medical records, baptism certificate, school year books, student I.D. card, old passports, old driver's license, etc).

7) Evidence of Change of Name.

If you and/or your parent's have changed names through marriage or court order, submit an original or certified copy of the verifying documents.

8) Evidence of Parentage and/or Legitimation.

Credible and substantial evidence of blood relationship between yourself and your U.S. parent(s) must be submitted with your application. If you were born out-of-wedlock, please consult the attached "Table of Transmission Requirements" for the legitimation laws that may be applicable at the time of your birth.

9) Affidavit of Parentage Completed and Signed by your U.S. Citizen Parent(s).

Your U.S. citizen parent should accompany you to the Embassy to sign the affidavit under oath. If your parent is in the United States, the affidavit can be signed before a notary public. The affidavit must be accompanied by a notarized copy of your parent's passport or driver's license.

10) If Born Out-of-Wedlock to a U.S. Citizen Father (see table of transmission requirements)

Your mother will be required to complete an "Affidavit from Mother to Establish Paternity of Child" before our Consular Officer. This affidavit does not establish paternity. She will be required to exhibit her foreign passport. If your claim to U.S. citizenship falls under Section 201(i) of the Nationality Act (born out-of-wedlock to a U.S. citizen father between January 13, 1941 and December 24, 1952), you will be required to submit your father's Honorable Discharge papers as well as sworn statements from mother's and father's family regarding the circumstances surrounding your birth. Family photographs, particularly those that show a resemblance to your father's family, should also be submitted.

11) Fee

The passport fee is $135. We accept cash, dollars or sterling. We also accept Mastercard, Visa, American Express, Diner's Club and Discover credit cards.

Please note: Certain applications may require additional documents/evidence and procedures to process.

If you believe you qualify for derivative citizenship, please make an appointment by calling 020 7499 9000, ext 2577 or 2572.
